

Brenda Harris, well known and loved PBS painting star, will be in Newcomerstown, Ohio on August 28, 29, and 30 to paint. I am sorry I had to change the painting date, due to some physical problems I am having. We will be painting the following paintings listed below. River of Life Bldg. in Newcomerstown, Classes will be $60.00 per day, and if you take all three days it will be $55.00 per day. Palettes will be furnished for those who need them at a minimal cost.

Brenda is going to take a sabbatical for a year so this is the last chance to paint with her in our area till 2010.

A list of the colors will be sent out later along with directions to the painting location, once you register.

*I have reserved a block of rooms at the Newcomerstown Hampton Inn. The number there is 740 498 9800. When you make your reservations please, please get the name of the person who makes them for you and be very sure to mention you are with the Brenda Harris painting group, for reduced rates.

We had problems last time and so please be sure to do this, otherwise I cannot help if you get charged more than the rate promised. This is during the peak season for them.

Breakfast refreshment and treats and lunch is included in the cost. There is a soft drink machine in the bldg...for soda and water...I will furnish the coffee and tea. Let me know as soon as possible if you are coming. Some of you had already registered for the other dates and I apologize for any inconvenience this has caused you, but physical problems and other complications arose beyond my control.

Hope to hear from you soon.
